INTERNATIONAL TRADE, LOGISTICS, TOURISM, FINANCES and SECURITY: Perspectives between South Florida and the Dominican Republic.

We cordially invite you to a premier business gathering designed to be the epicenter of strategic dialogue between the vibrant markets of South Florida and the Dominican Republic.

In an ever-evolving geopolitical and economic environment, this one-day summit offers an exclusive platform to thoroughly analyze challenges and synergies in vital sectors, fostering direct collaboration and business generation.

This is not just a lunch; it is a comprehensive, high-value day that includes:

- HIGH-LEVEL CONFERENCE: Expert panels and keynote speeches on the latest trends in trade, logistics innovation, post-pandemic tourism strategies, and comprehensive safety protocols.
- BUSINESS LUNCHEON: The central networking event, ideal for connecting with influential leaders, decision-makers, and potential partners in a professional and relaxed atmosphere.
- BRAND EXHIBITION (TABLES DISPLAY): A designated area for leading companies to showcase their services and products, facilitating direct interaction and brand visibility.
- STRATEGIC NETWORKING: Multiple opportunities scheduled to facilitate valuable and lasting connections between attendees from both markets.
- GUESTS OF HONOR: We will be joined by distinguished figures from the business and government spheres, who will share their vision and experience.
- AWARDS CEREMONY: A moment to celebrate success with:
 - ENTREPRENEURSHIP AWARDS: Recognition of the most innovative entrepreneurs who are making a difference.
 - SPECIAL RECOGNITIONS: Tribute to leaders and organizations for their outstanding contribution to strengthening bilateral relations.

Secure your place in the conversation that will define the future of business between South Florida and the Dominican Republic.

With the Support of

Main Export Products from Florida to the Dominican Republic

Florida exports a variety of products to the Dominican Republic, most notably manufactured goods, machinery, chemicals and processed foods. Industrial machinery and equipment are particularly important, as they support industrial development in the Dominican Republic. In addition, chemicals and pharmaceuticals are also in significant demand, reflecting the growing need for medical and health products in the Caribbean country.

Florida's Top Imported Products from the Dominican Republic

The Dominican Republic exports a variety of products to Florida, with a particular focus on agricultural and manufactured goods. Agricultural products such as coffee, cocoa and tobacco are of great importance, along with textiles and apparel. The Dominican textile industry has grown considerably, taking advantage of competitive advantages in labor and production costs. In addition, electronic products and components have also gained relevance in Dominican exports to Florida.

Trade between Florida and the Dominican Republic has experienced significant growth in recent decades, driven by geographic proximity and close economic relations. Florida, with its advanced port infrastructure and strategic position, has become an important trading partner for the Dominican Republic. This trade covers a wide range of products and services, benefiting both economies.

The steady commercial growth is thanks to trade agreements and the economic growth of both regions, driven by Florida's diversified economy and the Dominican Republic's manufacturing and tourism sectors. Key commercial sectors include manufacturing, agriculture, tourism, and financial services, which are expected to remain important, with technological innovation and infrastructure investment offering further growth potential.
